Hello From Programming

We're still in the early stages of building out the questionnaire, thinking about panels, and planning for fun. Suggestions for panels can be sent to programming@milehicon.org.

We're also thrilled to have Alzabo Soup podcast back to MileHiCon this year, and here's more information about this collaboration:

Alzabo Soup is thrilled to be celebrating our 10th anniversary at MileHiCon 2026!

If you're not familiar, Alzabo Soup is the podcast where we literally become our favorite authors by devouring portions of their brains. We analyze and discuss engrossing speculative fiction with a chapter-by-chapter focus on acclaimed author Gene Wolfe, as well as discussions of related authors like Jack Vance, Ada Palmer, Adrian Tchaikovsky, Kelly Link, R.A. Lafferty, Susanna Clarke, Kai Ashante Wilson, and many more.

For the past ten years, we have been living the dream of every overeducated speculative fiction nerd: talking about really cool books for longer than it takes to just read the words on the page. We're also known for our unique humor, our off-topic introductions, and our commitment to talking too much about the impact of video games, musicals, and funkopops on the society that surrounds us. We've got a friendly, active community of patrons and friends who love to talk about all this and more.

This fall, we're especially excited to partner with MileHiCon to be able to celebrate in-person with longtime fans, new listeners and Wolfe-curious readers alike. We're still in the planning stages, but we know we'll be having a meetup/party, panel discussions and maybe a few other surprises (soup, the surprise is definitely soup).

Literacy Auction

MileHiCon is looking for a literacy auction coordinator or coordinators. Duties include collecting donations for the literacy auction leading up to the convention, researching and vetting potential organizations to be recipients of the auction and working with the chair to select a charity, running the live auction Saturday night and the blind auction across the weekend, and coordinating with the charity about their presence at the convention. If you're interested, please contact the chairs at info@milehicon.org with the subject line "lit auction coordinator"

MileHiCon Exhibitors

Authors Row, Author's CO-OP, and Community Tables

Authors Row is a way for science fiction, fantasy, and horror authors to directly connect with the members of the convention. It is distinctly separate from the vendors room, in that only authors or publishers are allowed to have tables, and they can't generally sell other merchandise – only books. Please apply via the Exhibitor's Application below.

The Authors Co-Op table is for authors to self-promote at MileHiCon. You can sign-up for two hour blocks at the convention. To secure a spot, please apply via the Exhibitor's Application below.

Are you another convention or organization looking to advertise your group? Reach out to the Tables Coordinator via email.

For additional information please email TablesCoordinator@milehicon.org

Vendors Room

The application process for the Vendors Room is open! Please Apply via the Exhibitor's Application below.
